

City & Guilds Level 2 Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace

This City & Guilds Level 2 Award has been designed to provide individuals with the knowledge and skills to be able to assess Health and Safety in their workplace. It is a dynamic workshop where there will be some theory, tutor led input, group discussion and lots of practical application.

Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace – One day workshop

Content:

- Induction
- Roles and responsibilities for health, safety and welfare in the workplace
- Contribution of risk assessments to health and safety
- How to identify and control the risks from common workplace hazards
- Procedures for responding to accidents and incidents in the workplace

Assessment:

- Complete one short questionnaire at the end of workshop

Outcome:

- Fun, dynamic workshop delivered by expert trainer
- Share experiences with your team
- Successful completion of the questionnaire will result in a Qualification: City & Guilds Level 2 Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace